Email from Janet Owuor

Sandy Blessings. This is Evangelist Janet Owuor from Kenya who visited the Church yesterday just saying thank you to you all and Rev. Scott and Pauline for welcoming us to the Church and opportunity to even talk to the Church and present a song. May the good Lord bless you all. Pray for me as I plan to travel shortly to Kenya and for my family and the Ministry as well. God bless you all.

Books for Lent

A selection of Lenten reading is available this week and next on the Church Bookstall including:

The Glory of the Cross, by Tim Chester

47 days of short and stirring reflections on Lent from the Gospel of John, along with hymns and prayers drawn from the riches of church history.

The Good Book Company, 2018, £6.99 paperback

Following The Way: Living as a follower of Jesus today, by Ray Smith

Day by day, Bishop Ray Smith explains and applies to the reader the life-shaping and challenging words of Jesus from the Sermon on the Mount.

Aquila Press, 2008, £3.99

Thank you from everyone in Tombohuan!

We recently received a gift of £100.45 from Dedworth Green Baptist Church, and wanted to thank you all so much for your generosity.

For girls like Lucy and Nancy, clean water will mean everything. Instead of having to walk for water, they will be able to play and dance as all little girls their age should.

The gift from Dedworth Green Baptist Church will help us to install a tapstand in Tombohuan [Sierra Leone], bringing a reliable source of clean water to the village. We'll also train the community on how to look after their new water supply so it lasts for the long term

The amazing support from groups like yours is transforming lives around the world. We're looking forward to bringing good news from Tombohuan as the community turn on their new taps for the very first time!

With warm regards and many thanks,

Katrina Kilkenny

Annual Thankoffering

As our Thankoffering month nears its end, please remember to pass your suggestions for possible recipients to Matthew or one of the Deacons.

The decision as to where it will be sent will be made at the March Church Members' Meeting on 20th March. This offering is not normally kept by DGBC but given away to other charitable organisations.

Thankoffering envelopes are available on top of the cupboard in the foyer.
