BMS World Mission has launched a podcast!

Through the Mission Now podcast, you can listen to stories of mission from the frontlines, wherever you are. It's a new way to deepen your faith and hear the direct, life-changing impact of your support.

In episode one, hosts Ed and Ruth sit down with Rodrigo Assis da Silva, CEO and Founder of BMS-supported partner organisation All4Aid, which runs refugee aid centres in Cyprus, Greece and Ukraine. You'll get to hear Rodrigo tell us his extraordinary journey to founding All4Aid – and how God led him every step of the way.

There are 6 episodes of Mission Now dropping fortnightly from now through to late November, on YouTube, Spotify, Apple podcasts – wherever you most like to listen. Keep your eyes peeled and your ears open for a new conversation every two weeks.

Grab your headphones and be inspired by what God is doing. Enjoy listening!

Church Thank-offering

Like all Baptist churches, the costs of ministry, church life and mission at DGBC are met by the generosity of church members and friends, for which we are enormously grateful.

Normally, we hold a Church Thankoffering month in October to help boost our funds for our general running costs. This year, however, we are in the rare position of having a good balance in our General Fund.

Following some unexpected and expensive maintenance work on our building recently, the Church Members' Meeting in September agreed that this year our Church Thankoffering should go to building up our Building Funding. This will help us to meet the expense of any future unexpected expensive maintenance work.

Please therefore, prayerfully consider what one-off gifts you might be able to make during October, using one of the methods listed below:

- A one-off payment via online banking or our website. Please use Reference: CTO. If you are a Gift Aider, please give your contact details on the website so that we can claim the Gift Aid.
- Cheques (Payable to Dedworth Green Baptist Church) or cash placed in an envelope (some are available in the foyer) and either placed in the offering basket on Sunday mornings or posted through the church letterbox. Please mark the envelope CTO.
